Report of the Common Representative on the agenda of the special meeting of the savings shareholders of Pirelli & C. Società per Azioni called on 12, 13 and 14 December 2007

Dear Shareholders,

you have been called to a special meeting to approve, to the extent of your competence, the resolution which shall be taken by the extraordinary general meeting of ordinary shareholders (called on 11 and 12 December 2007, respectively on first and second call) with reference to the proposal to voluntarily reduce the share capital through reduction of the nominal value of the ordinary shares and of the savings shares, with consequent amendment of article 5 of the Company's By-Laws.

In particular, the extraordinary general meeting of ordinary shareholders is called to resolve upon the proposal to reduce from EUR 0.52 to EUR 0.29 the nominal value of each of the ordinary shares and of the savings shares. Should the transaction obtain the necessary approvals from the shareholders' meetings, the share capital shall be reduced from the current amount of EUR 2,791,311,344.64 to EUR 1,556,692,865.28.

As pointed out in the Directors' Report concerning the agenda of the extraordinary general meeting, the voluntary reduction of the share capital is aimed partly to carry out a reimbursement to shareholders and partly to better organize the financial structure of the Company. Therefore, should the transaction be approved, the Company will:

- (i) pay an "extraordinary dividend" by way of reimbursement to both the ordinary and the savings shareholders of an amount equal to EUR 0.154 per share, for an aggregate amount equal to EUR 826,657,590.53; and
- (ii) create an available reserve for the remaining amount of EUR 407,960,888.83.

With reference to tax aspects, the transaction, involving a capital reimbursement, is tax neutral both for the Company and the shareholder being reimbursed.

You have been called to approve the resolution to reduce the share capital since the transaction, affecting the nominal value also of the savings shares, will consequently reduce the basis with reference to which, pursuant to the Company's By-Laws, the preferential treatment attributed to the class is calculated. In light of the quora provided by the law for the approval of resolutions that may affect the rights pertaining to the class, the proposal subject to the approval of the special savings shareholders' meeting will require, to be approved, the favourable vote of a percentage equal to at least 20% of the share capital constituted by savings shares.

Moreover, since the transaction involves a variation of the nominal value of the savings shares and, accordingly, a substantial variation of the participation rights pertaining to savings shareholders as a consequence of the reduction of the basis for the calculation of the preferential treatment, should the proposal to voluntarily reduce the share capital be approved by both the extraordinary general meeting and the special savings shareholders' meeting, savings shareholders who did not concur to adopt the resolution of the special savings shareholders' meeting will be entitled to exercise the right to withdraw from the Company, pursuant to article 2437 and ff. of Italian civil code, on terms and subject to the conditions specified in the Directors' Report and in the notices which will be published by the Company in accordance with the law (to which you may make reference).

The consideration relating to the savings shares for which the withdrawal right is exercised has been finally determined – by making reference, pursuant to the law, to the arithmetic mean of the official stock exchange prices of the savings shares in the 6 months preceding November 10, 2007, i.e. the date of publication of the notice of call relating to the shareholders' meeting which gives rise to the right of withdrawal – in EUR 0.8055 per each savings share.

For completeness, the transaction, as far as savings shareholders are concerned, will not involve amendments to the Company's By-Laws other than those regarding the nominal value of the shares constituting the share capital. Therefore, article 18 of the Company's By-Laws, concerning the distribution of annual profits, will remain unchanged.

For any other information regarding the reduction of share capital please make reference to the Report of the Board of Directors which is available, as this Common Representative Report, at the registered office of the Company, at Borsa Italiana S.p.A. as well as on the Internet website of the Company (www.pirelli.com).
