The Company shall have a subscribed and paid-in share capital of EUR 1,556,692,865.28 (onebillionfivehundredandfiftysixmillions-sixhundredandninetwothousands-heighthundred-sixtyfivepointtwentyeight) divided into no. 5,367,906,432 (fivebillions-threehundredsixtysevenmillions-ninehundredandsixthousands-fourhundredandthirtytwo) shares with a par value of EUR 0.29 (twentynine cents) each, consisting of 5,233,142,003 (fivebillions-two hundredandthirtythreemillions-onehundredandfourtytwothousandsand three) ordinary shares and 134,764,429 (onehundredandthirtyfourmillions-sevenhundred-and-sixtyfourthousands-fourhundredandtwentynine) savings shares.

In resolutions to increase the share capital by issuing shares against payment, pre-emption rights may be excluded for up to a maximum of ten percent of the previously existing capital, provided that the issue price corresponds to the market value of the shares and that this is confirmed in a specific report prepared by the firm appointed to audit the accounts.

If so resolved by the shareholders' meeting, the share capital may also be increased by means of contributions in kind or of receivables.

By resolution of the extraordinary shareholders' meeting held on May 7, 2003, the directors were authorised to issue, on one or more occasions within April 30, 2008, up to a maximum of 100,000,000 (one hundred million) ordinary shares, to be allocated to executive managers and cadres employed by the Company, by its subsidiaries and by the subsidiaries of the latter, in Italy and abroad, in compliance with article 2441, paragraph 8, of the Italian Civil Code and article 134 of Legislative Decree no. 58/1998. On February 25, 2005 the Board of Directors resolved, in partial implementation of the authorisation granted to it by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting held on May 7, 2003, to increase the share capital by a maximum nominal amount of EUR 15,725,496.50 by issuing up to 54,225,850 ordinary shares with a par value of EUR 0.29 each, at a price of EUR 0.996 per share, inclusive of a EUR 0.706 share premium, to be reserved for subscription by executive managers and cadres

The resolutions passed by the Board of Directors to increase the share capital during the exercise of the rights allocated as described above shall set the share subscription price (inclusive of any share premium) as well as the specific term for the subscription of the shares: they may also provide that, if the capital increase resolved is not fully subscribed by the date set for this purpose, the capital shall be increased by an amount corresponding to the subscriptions received up to such date.

Article 6

The shares are divided into ordinary shares and savings shares.

Ordinary shares award the right to one vote per share; they may be either registered or bearer shares insofar as the law permits, and in this case may be converted from one type to the other, especially at the shareholder's request and expense.

Savings shares do not carry voting rights and, unless the law provides otherwise, are bearer shares.

They may be converted into registered shares on request and expense of the shareholder.

As well as any rights and privileges provided for by law and in other parts of these By-laws, savings shares shall have priority in the repayment of the capital up to their entire par value; in the event of a reduction of the share capital due to losses, the par value of saving shares will be reduced only by the amount of the loss that exceeds the total par value of the other shares.

Savings shares shall retain the rights and privileges contemplated by law and by these By-laws also in the event that the Company's ordinary and/or savings shares are delisted.

In the event of a share capital increase being carried out by issuing shares of only one class, such shares must be offered on option to the holders of all classes of shares.

In the event of both ordinary and savings shares being issued:

- a) the holders of ordinary shares shall be entitled to receive an option on ordinary shares, and on savings shares to make up any difference;
- b) the holders of savings shares shall be entitled to receive an option on savings shares, and on ordinary shares to make up any difference.

Any introduction or removal of restrictions on the circulation of shares does not award the right of withdrawal to shareholders who do not take part in the approval of the relating resolution.

The savings shareholders' organisation is governed by law and by these By-laws. The expenses related to the organisation of the special savings shareholders meetings and the remuneration of the common representatives of savings shareholders shall be borne by the Company

SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Article 7

The calling of shareholders' meetings, which may be held anywhere in Italy, including in a place other than the Company's registered office, the right to attend meetings and representation at same are all regulated by law and by these By-laws.

The notice of the call of an extraordinary shareholders' meeting may provide for it being held on third call.

The ordinary shareholders' meeting must be called within 120 days after the end of the Company's financial year.

Requests to add items to the agenda of the general meetings presented by shareholders in accordance with the law must be detailed, by the same shareholders, by a report to be filed in the Company's registered office in time to be made available to the other shareholders and at least 10 days prior to the date set for the meeting on the first call.

Special meetings of savings shareholders shall be convened by the common representative of savings shareholders or by the Board of Directors of the Company whenever they deem necessary or in accordance with the law.

Article 8

The due constitution of shareholders' meetings and the validity of the resolutions adopted by same are governed by law.

The proceedings of shareholders meetings are governed by law, by these By-laws, and – solely for the ordinary and extraordinary general meetings – by the Rules of Proceeding approved by resolution of the Company's ordinary shareholders meeting.

Article 9

Ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, by a Deputy Chairman or by a Managing Director, in that order; whenever there are two or more Deputy Chairmen or Managing Directors, the meetings will be chaired by the elder of same respectively. In the absence of all of the aforementioned individuals, the meeting shall be chaired by another person elected with the favourable vote of the majority of the capital represented at the meeting.

The special meeting for savings shareholders shall be chaired by the common representative for savings shareholders or, in his absence, by the person appointed with the favourable vote of the majority of the capital represented at the meeting.

The Chairman shall be assisted by a Secretary who is to be appointed with the favourable vote of the majority of the capital represented at the meeting and need not be a shareholder; there is no need to appoint a Secretary when a notary public is designated to draw up the minutes of the meeting.

The Chairman of the shareholders' meeting shall chair the meeting and govern its proceedings in compliance with the law and these By-laws. To this end, the Chairman shall, amongst other things: verify that the meeting is duly constituted; ascertain the identity of those present and their right to attend, including by proxy; ascertain the legal quorum for passing resolutions; direct the business, including by establishing a different order for the discussion of the items listed on the agenda in the notice convening the meeting. The Chairman shall also take appropriate measures to ensure the orderly conduct of discussions and votes and shall establish the procedures and ascertain the results thereof.

The resolutions of shareholders' meetings shall be recorded in the minutes that must be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and by the Secretary or the notary public.

The minutes of extraordinary shareholders' meetings must be drawn up by a notary public appointed by the Chairman of the meeting.

Any copies of and extracts from minutes that have not been drawn up by a notary public shall be certified as true copies by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 10

The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of no less than seven and no more than twenty three members who shall remain in office for three financial years (unless the shareholders' meeting establishes a shorter term at the time of their appointment) and may be re-elected.

The shareholders' meeting shall establish the number of members of the Board of Directors, which shall remain unchanged until said meeting resolves otherwise.

The Board of Directors shall be appointed on the basis of slates presented by the shareholders pursuant to the following paragraphs hereof, in which the candidates are listed by consecutive number.

The slates presented by the shareholders, which must be undersigned by the parties submitting them, shall be filed at the Company's registered office, and be available to anyone on request, at least fifteen days before the date set for the shareholders' meeting to be held on first call.

Each shareholder may present or take part in the presentation of only one slate and each candidate may appear on only one slate on pain of ineligibility.

Only shareholders who, alone or together with other shareholders, hold a total number of shares representing at least 2 percent of the share capital entitled to vote at the ordinary shareholders' meeting or the minor percentage, according to the regulations issued by Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa, are entitled to submit slates, subject to their proving ownership of the number of shares needed for the presentation of slates within the term of filing of same slates.

Together with each slate, and within the respective terms specified above, statements must be filed in which the individual candidates agree to their nomination and attest, under their own liability, that there are no grounds for their ineligibility or incompatibility, and that they meet any requisites prescribed for the positions.

Together with such statements, a curriculum vitae must be filed for each candidate, setting out their relevant personal and professional data and mentioning the offices held in management and supervisory bodies of other companies and specifying, where appropriate, the grounds on which they qualify as an independent candidate in accordance with the criteria established by law and the Company.

Any changes that occur up to the date of the Shareholders' meeting must be promptly notified to the Company.

Any slates submitted without complying with the foregoing provisions shall be disregarded.

Each person entitled to vote may vote for only one slate.

The Board of Directors shall be elected as specified below:

- a) four-fifths of the directors to be elected shall be chosen from the slate which obtains the highest number of votes cast by the shareholders, in the order in which they are listed on the slate; in the event of a fractional number, it shall be rounded-down to the nearest whole number;
- b) the remaining directors shall be chosen from the other slates; to this end, the votes obtained by the various slates shall be divided by whole progressive numbers from one up to the number of directors to be elected.

The quotients thus obtained shall be assigned to the candidates on each slate in the order they are respectively listed thereon. On the basis of the quotients assigned, the candidates on the various slates shall be ranked in a single list in decreasing order. Those who have obtained the highest quotient shall be elected.

If more than one candidate obtains the same quotient, the candidate from the slate that has not yet elected a director or that has elected the lowest number of directors shall be elected.

If none of such slates has as yet elected a director or they have all elected the same number of directors, the candidate from the slate which obtained the highest number of votes shall be elected. If the different slates obtain the same number of votes and their candidates are assigned the same quotients, a new vote shall be held by the entire shareholders' meeting and the candidate who obtains the simple majority of the votes shall be elected.

If the application of the slate voting system shall not ensure the appointment of the minimum number of independent Directors required by the law and/or regulation, the appointed non-independent candidate indicated with the higher progressive number in the slate which has obtained the higher number of votes shall be replaced by the non-appointed independent candidate included in the same slate on the basis of the progressive order of the presentation and so on, slate by slate, until the minimum number of independent Directors shall be appointed.

When appointing directors who, for whatsoever reason were not appointed under the procedure established herein, the shareholders' meeting shall vote on the basis of the majorities required by law.

If one or more vacancies occur on the Board during the course of the financial year, the procedure established in article 2386 of the Italian Civil Code shall be followed.

In the event a Director ceases to comply with the independence requirements, this does not cause his/her ceasing to be a Director provided that the Directors in office complying with legal independence requirements are a number at least equal to the minimum number requested by laws and/or regulations.

The Board of Directors shall elect its own Chairman, if the shareholders' meeting has not already done so, and may also appoint one or more Deputy Chairmen.

In the absence of the Chairman, a Deputy Chairman or a Managing Director, in that order, shall act in his/her stead; should there be two or more Deputy Chairmen or Managing Directors, the Board shall be presided over by the elder of same respectively.

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Secretary, who need not be a director.

Until the shareholders' meeting resolves otherwise, the directors shall not be subject to the prohibition contemplated in article 2390 of the Italian Civil Code.

The ordinary shareholders' meeting shall elect the Board of Statutory Auditors and determine its remuneration. The minority shareholders shall be entitled to appoint one standing auditor and one alternate auditor.

The Board of Statutory Auditors shall be appointed in compliance with applicable laws and regulations and with the exception of the provisions of the third-to-last paragraph of this article 16, on the basis of slates presented by the shareholders in which candidates are listed by consecutive number.

Each slate shall contain a number of candidates which does not exceed the number of members to be appointed.

Shareholders who, alone or together with other shareholders, represent at least 2 percent of the shares with voting rights in the ordinary shareholders' meeting or the minor percentage, according to the regulations issued by Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa for the submission of slates for the appointment of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to submit slates.

The remaining profits shall be distributed amongst all the shares, in addition to the allocations contemplated in the foregoing points a) and b), unless the shareholders' meeting, on the proposal of the Board of Directors, resolves to make special allocations to extraordinary reserves or for other uses, or decides to carry some of such profits forward to the next year.
