

Quality Policy

February 2010

The Pirelli Group considers:

- the attention dedicated to the needs and reconciliation of all of the Group Stakeholders' interests, with the assurance that they receive an immediate, qualified and competent response
- ethical business conduct
- continual innovation of products, services, processes and systems
- anticipation of Customer needs
- excellence in the offered products and services
- product safety
- environmental protection throughout the entire lifetime of the product
- protection of employee safety, health and well-being
- strategic co-operation with Suppliers
- continuous quality, cost and efficiency improvements to be basic and general elements in defining its own strategies and objectives, in view of obtaining ever-more competitiveness on the global market on a long-lasting and sustainable basis.

The following tools are key to supporting implementation of this Policy:

- dialogue with Stakeholders
- firm compliance with laws, regulations, and corporate policies and procedures
- the execution of benchmarks, analysis of Stakeholder expectations, design and realisation of new products and processes, and exploitation of research
- definition and management of preventive and corrective actions through a management and monitoring system to assess and evaluate the effects of poor quality and corporate efficiency, both inside and outside the Group
- implementation and maintenance of advanced management systems aimed at continuous improvement
- the adoption of measures to assess and monitor Supplier performance from the selection phase on, in terms of competitive advantage, qualitative performance, possibility of shared strategic development, their economic, social and environmental sustainability and in their relationship with the Group
- personnel development, qualification and improvement
- strategic planning of objectives
- continuous improvement activities
- an organisational structure focused on guaranteeing the availability and adequacy of the human resources needed to achieve planned objectives, environmental protection and occupational safety
